“ My sincerest condolences to her devoted husband Dick, your tireless efforts to keep your wife comfortable in her final days will remain in my thoughts for years to come. You have given 1000% of yourself and I will never forget that. I will miss Guen, I didn't expect her to go so soon. We had a lot of good times and some no-so-good times. It's those good times that leave me teary eyed and remorseful, I wish we could have had a few more of them.

“ Guen was my older sister and I remember her practicing the piano, taking lessons in Glencoe and Macphail School of Music in Minneapolis. When she took steno in high school, I remember I had to dictate to her so she could practice her shorthand. She did very well at that in her career. She was salutarian of her high school class. Outstanding in 4-H, winning many trips to the State Fair. When our parents passed away which is always a difficult time, we settled everything very peacefully.
I will miss the phone calls of the last years. Karen
