

Hazel L Baxter

June 18, 1944 - November 27, 2010

Hazel L. Baxter, 66, of Cashmere, WA, went to meet her Lord and Savior on November 27, 2010, due to a car accident. She was born on June 18, 1944, to Jessie and Guy Ramsey in Merced, CA. In 1966, she moved to Gold Hill, OR where she met and married James Baxter on April 14, 1966. They moved to Wenatchee in 1980, where they had several businesses, including Go Bent Recumbent Bicycle Shop, which they started in 2000. Her dedication and walk with the Lord touched many lives, including her whole family. She was a member of the River of Life Church, where she was very involved. She is survived by her husband, James Baxter of Cashmere; her four children, Sanya Jack of Lake Wenatchee, Ragina Mooney of East Wenatchee, Robert Lee of Wenatchee and James Baxter, Jr. of Kenmore, WA; her mother and father, Jessie L. and Guy Ramsey of Gold Hill, OR; three sisters, Brenda Savage, Renny Grimm and Terrie Rand, all of Gold Hill, OR; two brothers, Bud Ramsey of Trail, OR and Daniel Ramsey of Gold Hill, OR grandchildren, Noresa Woodford, Meghan Gillihan, Gordan Gillihan III, Schuyler Lee, Bridgett Jack-Lee, Christopher Parks, Ashley Parks, Jessie Lee, Kailyn Lee and Payden Baxter; and nine great-grandchildren. A Celebration of her Life will be held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, December 2, 2010, at Jones & Jones~Betts Funeral Chapel in Wenatchee, WA. Visitation will be held Wednesday, December 1, 2010, from 2:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Chapel. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com.

Arrangements by Jones & Jones~Betts Funeral Home, Wenatchee.

Cemetery Details

Cashmere Cemetery

Evergreen and Pioneer
Cashmere, WA 98815

Previous Events

Service

DEC 2. 11:00 AM (PT)

Jones & Jones ~ Betts Funeral Home
302 9thStreet
Wenatchee, WA 98801
(509) 662-1561
dante@jonesjonesbetts.com

Tribute Wall

BD

“ Hey guys, this is Bill Duffy messing on his sister Sandys "face page"... Im living in Seattle now and was just told about your moms passing. I stood there with my mouth open for awhile and am still stunned. Im so sorry. and can only imagine your devastation. The only comfort I do have when I see this...is I know what your mom believed in her heart. Sandy also just told me she was a minister too! Ive been a nurse for years, so I get to witness "when the sacred is torn" and loved ones are taken away too often. I can't explain it, I know I hate it and I rage at times over what I see. I dont understand it all. But I do believe in the same God your mom did. In my work I see the passing of young and old alike and this I do know: It is very different for a pertson who knows their Creator. We live in a very very rough...fallen world. Not what He planned at all, its still in the works. Its a very brutal place at times and most of us have realized that by now. But your moms faith in Christ is the difference when someone is "taken". Ive studied alot, along with falling on my face alot, but Ive learned alittle too. I beleive your mom has now stood in the great hall, before the throne of her Father and King...and was welcomed "home" like a long lost daughter..like a warrior from a rough battle. I beleive it was incredible. I sometimes tell my patients or family members and friends: "I'll meet you guys on the right side of the throne" The rough part is for us to carry on down here when were so wounded. Were supposed to focus on His Words...and simply believe. Hang in there! I love you guys, you've always been like family...and hey!: if I dont see you guys soon... lets just meet on the right side of the throne!

with a wounded heart and many blessings...

Bill

Bill Duffy - December 25, 2010 at 02:48 PM

AT

“ April Tedder lit a candle in memory of Hazel L Baxter

April Tedder - December 06, 2010 at 10:45 PM

AT

“ Hazel, was a dear friend of the family, a beloved sister in Christ and a treasured teacher who was always willing to share her God given wisdom. A true woman of God who was not afraid to live what she believed. I mourn our loss, but rejoice in Heavens' gain. I love you Hazel, and it's my honor to follow in your footsteps.

April Tedder - December 06, 2010 at 10:44 PM

 Sandra Duffy

“ I am still shocked and very sad to hear about your great loss, my thoughts and prayers have been with you all, she was a beautiful person and I know she will be missed by many. My deepest condolences

Sandra Duffy - December 02, 2010 at 06:52 PM

“ Hazel always was a gentle person, a joy to be around. She made you feel good, and never missed a chance to share the joy of Christian life. Imagine a long line of souls, people we never knew, lined up before her in heaven awaiting their turn to thank her for her boldness in leading them to Christ. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and may the healing be swift and the joy of remembrance last forever.

2 Timothy 4 7-8, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing."

Jack Elizabeth Dayley - December 02, 2010 at 11:21 AM

AH

“ Sorry for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Al Sarah High - December 01, 2010 at 06:46 PM

DB

“ We are in the middle of the desert and won't be able to come home, but we are thinking of you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
Dan and Phyllis Barnett

Dan Phyllis Barnett - November 30, 2010 at 07:59 PM

LH

“ I loved her smile. I also loved the way Jim could always make her laugh. The love and dedication between Jim and Hazel was inspiring. Jim, just know we all love you and are praying for you. The life she lived is an inspiration to us all and a true legacy.

Linda Haglund - November 30, 2010 at 01:01 PM