

Imo Jean Palmer

June 2, 1929 - July 18, 2022

Imo Jean Palmer 93, peacefully passed away Monday, July 18, 2022.

Imo Jean, was born June 2, 1929 to Jesse Lee and Fay (Tolivar) Pitts in Coulee City, WA, the fourth of five children.

Imo grew up in a loving family on a ranch in the Douglas County, WA area of Mold (near Coulee City).

Love for family and hard work defined her life. She worked in retail, fruit, and motel industry while raising three sons.

Imo was fiercely independent, but never hesitated to open her home to offer a place for family or friends to be cared for or to stay.

Imo loved being outdoors, whether it be camping, gardening, or working on the farm as a young girl. She created numerous crocheted blankets, ceramics, and meals for loved ones. Imo loved to go dancing, to laugh, host family reunions, and have company over to play cards.

Imo never quit working, always looking forward to summer so she could “dig in the dirt,” plant her flowers and mow her lawn. Mowing her lawn was the last work she was able to perform.

As Mom, Grandma, Grams, GGrandma, and Aunt Imo Jean leaves a tender spot in many hearts. She was preceded in death by her parents, siblings Howard, Rada, Opal and Jim. She is survived by sons Ron (Kristen) Bates, Don Bates, Chris (Cheryl) Bates, seven grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren. She taught us all and reminded us often to love hard work, and put family first. We all look forward to seeing her again.
