“ we took a trip to boston several years ago when joey got married.....what a great time we had as we got to know each other a little more outside of work. my condolences to joey, brian, belle, and gina. she shared with me how much you meant to her. I have chuckled to myself many times over the years some of the stuff we used to get into at work at food pavilion. she was one reason I enjoyed my job there....my sincere sympathy.....kelli wisemore
