

Janet C. Jackson

August 30, 1933 - November 4, 2019

Janet Carol Thomsen Jackson, 86, died November 4, 2019 in Wenatchee. She was born on August 30, 1933, to Wallace and Viola Tilson Thomsen, wheat farmers in the Mansfield area. She grew up on the family farm and attended Mud Springs Country School. Graduating from Mansfield High School in 1951, she went on to earn a B.S. degree from Washington State University in 1956. In June of 1955 she married Jack A. Jackson. They moved to the Seattle area in 1960, where they raised their family. Janet was a partner and office manager of Jackson Paint Contracting. After retirement in 2004 they moved to East Wenatchee.

Janet was an exceptionally wonderful and loving wife, mother and grandmother. Her many life-long friends will greatly miss her and her caring upbeat personality. In recent years she volunteered at the Mansfield Museum, where she also served as Board Secretary

She was preceded in death by a brother, David Lynn Thomsen.

Janet is survived by her beloved husband and best friend, Jack; sons Michael (Laurie), and Mark (Tracey); daughter Denise Jackson Stewart; grandsons Adam (Lizzie) Jackson, and Josh (Molly) Jackson; granddaughters Jennifer Stewart and Lindsay Stewart; great grandchildren Alex, Cheyenne and Dallas; a sister Mary Jean Thomsen Cahail; and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Saturday November 16 at 1:00 PM in the United Protestant Church in Mansfield. Inurnment will take place in the Mansfield Cemetery. Memorials in Janet's name can be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ She'll always be one of 'the girls' to me, just like I'm one of 'the girls' with my sisters. I know my dad had fond memories of spending time with family and 'the girls'. People spread their wings and left Mansfield so it was fun to get together again at one farm or the other. Picnics and potlucks on the lawn. Cool drinks, genuine conversations to catch up on everyone's lives, and kids running around making their own fun. Wish we had made more time for those reunions!
