

Janice Kaestner

February 5, 1937 - April 21, 2024

Janice Kaestner, born in Monitor, Washington, and later passed away in Wenatchee, Washington was a beacon of love and laughter and has peacefully passed away. She left behind a legacy of warmth, kindness, and unforgettable moments. With a contagious laugh and a heart as expansive as the sky, Janice was cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Throughout her journey, she radiated a joyous spirit that drew others to her like a magnet. Her bubbly personality lit up every room she entered, leaving smiles in her wake and hearts forever touched by her presence. Whether it was a witty joke or a comforting embrace, Janice could uplift those around her, making every interaction a cherished memory.

As a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, Janice's love knew no bounds. She dedicated herself wholeheartedly to her family, nurturing deep bonds of love and understanding. Her unwavering support, advice, and unconditional love were the pillars upon which her family leaned on. Janice is now reunited with her beloved husband, Don. Together, they watch over their family and friends, guiding them with love from above.

Janice, your laughter will be in our memories, your love will guide us through each day, and your spirit will live on forever in our hearts. Rest peacefully, knowing you are loved beyond measure and deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing you.

A celebration of Janice's life will be held on June 22nd from 2:00 to 6:00 PM at the American Legion Post 10- Wenatchee, where friends and family will gather to honor her.

Arrangements by Jones & Jones - Betts Funeral Home.
