Your smile, your heart, your laughter will sing in my heart forever... I can hear U2's "Whose going to ride your wildhorses"... playing right along side it... you may be gone from this world but will never be forgotten my friend, you are missed.

*“ It saddens me to hear about this and am so sorry for those closest to him. My thoughts go out to the family. I met Jason at the skating rink and he was like a brother to me those days from "coaching" my skating to just pestering me. Even more so when Mandi and I became good friends! Unfortunately, like many, we lost contact as life gets busy. Jason, you may have drivin me crazy but you were an important person in my life. I never forgot you and I never will.

“ I met Jason on July 31, 1988 at the rollerskating rink. Loved skating with him and watching him speed skate. He was truly a great friend. Although time passed us by every time we ran into each other it was like no time had gone by. I will forever miss you my friend. Love you and may you be at peace.
