

Jeanne M. Kirschner

September 20, 1926 - October 27, 2010

Jeanne M. Kirschner treasured wife and mother passed away at home on October 27, 2010 at the age of 84. She was born September 20, 1926 in Wenatchee to George and Marie Fales. Jeanne grew up in Cashmere where she attended Cashmere High and met her future husband George Kirschner. Jeanne attended WSU and obtained her Bachelors of Art degree in foreign language. Shortly after, she was diagnosed with polio and spent a year at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Yakima. In November 1950, Jeanne married George Kirschner when he returned from World War II. They moved to Wenatchee after their wedding. In 1956, Lisa their first of three children was born, Tony and Kelly followed a few years later.

Jeanne engaged herself into being a full time homemaker and mother while her children grew up. Later, after her kids where on their own, she became bookkeeper and office manager for Performance Auto Sound, until she retired in 2002. Jeanne was an ardent reader and loved to steal away a moment to enjoy the most recent book she was reading. She loved music and the arts and particular enjoyed the community concert events.

Jeanne is survived by her husband, George Kirschner of Wenatchee and her sons, Tony Kirschner of Palisades and Kelly Kirschner of Wenatchee. Preceding her in death are her parents George and Marie Fales and her daughter Lisa C. Kirschner.

A memorial service will be held Saturday November 6, 2010 at 1:00pm at Jones and Jones – Betts Funeral Home.