“ Jenith was always a joy to be around, and very nice to visit with, seems like a young age now, I remember when my Dad turned 50, I thought he was older than the hills!!!! My, what a crazy thing it is when you are 25 and so you think 50 is really old. We all will miss Jenith on this side, but we also all know she is in true paradise now, how wonderful, I love piano music and almost always got her to play, and she could and did play very beautiful. Our thoughts of sympathy are with you all in the "natural" loss, but at the same time glad that the suffering here is over !!! Myron & Darlene Peterson

“ Dear Family and Jenith,

Thank you for keeping Jenith's friends updated through the decline of her health. I followed along with each email that was written. Jenith will be missed by many. Many of us would like to be with you all on Monday but it isn't possible. With care, Linda Brist

I wrote to Jane Miller and told what Jennie Kooiman said when a friend 74, had a stroke, "she was just a young woman yet". I was all of 21 then but I say that of Jeneth now. Nice to have our paths cross through the years, especially in ND at the time of Uncle Henry' S passing. Feel for the family.

Dear Kay and all families of Jenith, I do well remember her and her lovely, cheery, hearty smile and laugh. I saw her in the Orient, but mostly here. Her illness sounded so dreadful to bear and it moves me to hear of how beautifully she bore it. How wonderful she had family and friends close AND our Father!! Someone said about this kind of passing... "We cannot deny the weary runner the finish line" and I believe she, as Paul Boyd expressed "rushed the tape" , with God's help I am sure!! With love, Betty Gregg

I'm sure THINKING of all of you at home. Thinking of all of Jen's family, all her fellow-workers, and all the others that loved her through the years. Glad her suffering is over and she can enjoy wonderful things now! With love, care, and sympathy, Muriel C.
