

Jennye Helen Quehrn

October 19, 1924 - January 31, 2012

Jennye Helen Quehrn passed into the arms of her savior on January 31, 2012 and, her loved ones firmly believe, into the arms of her waiting husband Bill who preceded her in death. Jennye is survived by her son William (Mary) Quehrn, Daughter Patricia (John) McIntyre, and son Markham (Jane) Quehrn, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Jennye was born October 19, 1924 to John and Mary Young of De Soto, Missouri. She was called by her middle name of Helen until in 1944 she took her place in the Greatest Generation by joining the Women's Army Corps. While stationed in Santa Monica, California Corporal Young met Army Air Corps Sgt. William Quehrn from Cashmere, Washington. They were married in Santa Monica on June 23, 1945. Following their discharges from the service the couple returned to Cashmere and eventually moved to Seattle, Washington. Jennye and Bill lived in Seattle for most of their lives where Bill opened an insurance agency. Jennye started helping in the office soon becoming the office manager and eventually a partner in the business. Over the years Bill and Jennye became active and dedicated members of Faith Lutheran Church in Seattle, Washington. After they sold the insurance agency and retired they helped found Shepard of the Valley Lutheran Church in Startup, Washington, and became active members of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Mesa, Arizona where they settled after several years of post retirement traveling. In his later years Bill's health was ravaged by rheumatoid arthritis eventually crippling him. Jennye will always be remembered for her many years of selfless care giving to her husband. Following his passing she returned to the Seattle area where she lived in an adult family home under the loving care of Vio Gradinaru and her wonderful staff with several of her children and grandchildren nearby. Jennye will be laid to rest at the Cashmere City Cemetery in Cashmere Washington On Friday, February 10th. A memorial Service will be held for Jennye in Seattle at 2 PM on Saturday February 11th at Faith Lutheran Church, 8208 18th Avenue NE, Seattle. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones ~ Betts Funeral Home. Please leave your thoughts and memories for the family on our online memorial site www.jonesjonesbetts.com

“ We knew Bill & Jennye at Faith Church 1956-1965 before moving to SW Seattle. We were sad to hear about Bill and now Jennye. Joanne was raised at Entiat, so Cashmere and Wenatchee bring back memories too. We now live in Des Moines, WA. We are sending sincere condolences to all the family, O. Paul & Joanne Marr
