“ I'm so sorry to here of Jims passing. Jim was my head tapper at Alcoa when I hired in. He was full of wisdom,kind heart and great smile. We had so much fun working together .So many laughs, cold beer after work and always talking about our kids.Last time I saw you ,you where flagging at the end of Squirrel Chuck .I stopped my car ,ran over gave you a big hug and got back in my car and drove away. You where smiling from ear to ear. We will see each other again ,rest in peace big brother..Sharen Cockrum
