

JoAnn Sporer

June 27, 1939 - February 3, 2015

JoAnn Serene “Jo” (Johnson) Sporer, beloved mother and grandmother, died on February 3, 2015, after a three year battle with cancer. She was a member of the Appleaires Women’s Choir for three decades, including leadership. She also volunteered with the Performing Arts Center as an Usher, as well as in the box office. And, for over a decade, she worked at Town Toyota in their office until retirement. She was a doting grandmother to her two grandchildren, who affectionately called her “Nana”. She was, as well, a compassionate mother, who was always willing to listen. She will be missed by her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George “Jim” Sporer. She is survived by her sons, Richard and Steven Sporer; her daughter, Stacy Sporer; and her grandchildren, Jake and Kayla Fox.

Services will be held at Jones & Jones~Betts Funeral Home in Wenatchee at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, February 21, 2015. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guestbook at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements by Jones & Jones~Betts Funeral Home, Wenatchee.
