“ ALL RIGHT!!! I just found out that John passed away. John was a very, very close friend of mine. I found John when he and Cathy Cole were a couple. I was the coach and manager and the shortstop for Lakeview Seniors. John always had a smile, joke, and a great laugh. He was a TRUE friend!! One story, we were a major double AA co-ed team. Playing in Portland, we were killing the team we were playing, so we switched positions, John was in center field, I was in right. field.

Fly ball to me, John's saying a-lot of room, a-lot of room. I caught the ball, but I had go over the fence, tore up my arm, blood everywhere and John said I knew you would catch it!

He was the BEST person Ever! I would love to talk to someone from his family. Please respond. Rolland Ireland, Lacey, WA

“ I remember growing up across the street from John on Highland Dr. He would play ball and have to retrieve his ball from our bushes. I would see him every once in a while at the grocery store and we would always say hello. I remember his kind words when my parents passed. Great childhood memories from our wonderful neighborhood on Highland Dr. I'll miss seeing you around town John. Rest in Peace. Your friend and neighbor, Janet (Garvik) Culp.
