“ My Dear Joe,

The last 3 years you have been part of my family. You lived more than 1 year in my home. I watched how determined you were to have a better future and we're building a life with my daughter. I watched the love you had for each other and it was a blessing to be a part of. Always offering to help anyone in need. You went out of state to take a course and called me every night to help you study and of course you passed and got a more secure position at work. Always willing to better yourself. Every morning you said "Have a good day Miss Debb" Always thanking me and telling me you love me...right now I am so very sad Joe...my heart is breaking not just for me but for Alexis who is devastated. I am in shock that you are not home here where you belong. We are all grateful for the love you showed all of us. Please watch over your loved ones. I pray for your children. Miss Debb loves you ❤️🙏❤️🙏
