“ I still listen to the CD of many years ago when my children and I were traveling through Seattle and went through a building near the space needle. We went closer to the grand piano, near an elevator, I think. The music and the pianist touched my heart deeply. Joe was playing his originals and had the warmest smile. We changed our plans to listen for a long time that day. Then he stopped to talk with us for a while and kindly gave me the CD, which has remained the most special music in my home. We miss you!

“ Joe had a very big heart. He was kind and very well liked. I know he touched a lot of lives and will be remembered warmly.

“ Thank Joe for all of the times you played at the market. We will miss your smile and the music we were all lucky enough to enjoy while you were there. Rest in peace.
