

Joyce Anderson

August 14, 1930 - April 6, 2026

Joyce Anderson, a beloved 85-year resident of Wenatchee, changed her address to Heaven on April 6, 2026, at the age of 95. She is now reunited with her husband, Gene Anderson, who preceded her in death in 2018.

Joyce was, first and foremost, a devoted wife and mother whose love for her family shaped everything she did. She worked for the Wenatchee Daily World, the Chelan County Treasurer's Office, and alongside her husband in property management at Manson Villa in Manson, Washington, and Garden Terrace Retirement Facility in Wenatchee. She took great pride in redecorating Garden Terrace, creating warm, welcoming spaces for the seniors who lived there, including updating the dining room to be a place of comfort and connection.

Joyce had a special gift for hospitality. She was a gracious host who delighted in opening her home to others, whether for holidays, celebrations, or spontaneous gatherings. Known for her warmth, attention to detail, and joyful spirit, she made every guest feel welcomed and cherished. Her parties and get-togethers became treasured memories for family and friends—filled with laughter, good food, and her unmistakable touch of elegance and care.

Joyce recently relocated to Spokane, Washington, to be near family. She is survived by her son and wife, Mark and Julie Anderson of Spokane; her daughter and husband, Lisa and Peter Christian of Bozeman, Montana; three grandchildren, Aaron Anderson of Spokane; Hannah McClellan (Brett) of Bozeman, Montana; and Dane Christian of Seattle; and five great-grandchildren, Ava Dylan, Liam Edward, and Emma Julene Anderson of Spokane, and Olivia Anderson McClellan and Ledger Henry McClellan of Bozeman. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Waiting to welcome her in heaven are her husband, Gene Anderson; her infant son, Stuart Glenn Anderson; her parents, Leonard and Millie Barham; and her brother, Rex Barham.

Services to celebrate Joyce's life will be held on Friday, May 8, at 11 a.m. at Jones & Jones – Betts Funeral Home in Wenatchee, with a graveside service following at 1 p.m. at the Wenatchee City Cemetery.
