

Juan R Salazar

February 3, 1960 - February 19, 2010

Juan Salazar, 50, of Waterville, passed away suddenly, but, peacefully on February 19, 2010, in a Seattle Hospital, after a lengthy illness. He was born on February 3, 1960, to Ignacia and Senorina Salazar in Santiage Ixc, Nayarit, Mexico. After high school, he came to California with his brother, Luis, to work in landscaping. He eventually ended up in Orondo, WA, where he met Etta Preugshat. They married on March 3, 1984. They had their first son, Juan Martin "Johnnie" in 1986, and Cody Adam followed in 1988. Juan worked for several orchards throughtout the valley and occasionally for the NCW District Fair. Juan also enjoyed working in his yard and helping to take care of Cody's dogs, Ace, Bobe and Ginger.

Survivors include Etta, Johnnie and Cody all, of Waterville; his mother and three sisters, Ceclia, Angela and Martha, all of Mexico; brothers Luis, Ismael and Nacho, all of California, Enrique of Port Arthur, TX and Agustin of Pasco, WA; special nephews and nieces, Jeremy, Jaobe, Jermiah, Cera, Jessica(Junior) and McKenzie, all of Wenatchee; and special friends, Lynnette, Juan Erma, Jana, Lupe, Austroberto and Mario, all of Waterville. He requested that NO Services be held, if desired memorials may be made to the NCW District Fair in Juan's name. "Juan wasn't here to live a long time, just long enough to have a good time." Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by the Waterville Funeral Home.
