“ I remember my grandmother being the sweetest and kindest, most loving individual I have ever met. She had an infectious smile and could make even your worst days turn into a good one just by being around you. Ever since she passed away, I don't look at Thanksgiving or Christmas the same because I no longer have the one thing I looked forward to the most. She was my shining star that guided the way and i know she is now my guardian angel looking down on me and protecting me.. I love you grandma!! I will never forget you or how much you meant to me and our family. Atleast now I know your no longer in pain though.
