

Karon L. Hubbard

September 22, 1942 - September 23, 2012

Karon Lee Hubbard passed away Sunday, September 23, 2012 surrounded by her loving family. She was born to Elmer and Lorna Goodwin September 22, 1942 in Twisp, Washington. As a young girl her family settled in the Lake Chelan Valley. She later graduated from Manson High School. On September 26, 1959 Karon Goodwin married Duane Hubbard in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. They were blessed with three children, six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Their life-long passion was growing apples. They were progressive thinkers and enjoyed keeping up with the ever changing industry. Together they formed an ideal farming team. Duane loved the growing aspect, while Karon was a meticulous bookkeeper. Their attention to quality earned them numerous awards throughout the years.

Karon also loved yearly trips to the Oregon Coast, spending time at their cabin in Stehekin, and her adorable Boston Terrier, Molly. Whether preparing for a large family gathering or simply sharing a relaxing cup of coffee and conversation with a close friend, she truly enjoyed people.

She was preceded in death by her parents Elmer and Lorna Goodwin. Karon is survived by and will be deeply missed by her loving husband Duane, of 53 years; her daughter Cindy (Jack) Deatherage; a son, Rod Hubbard; and

A celebration of her life will be held at the Little Stone Church in Chelan, Friday, September 28th at 11am. A time to share good food and fond memories of Karon will follow. She will be laid to rest after this celebration at the Chelan Fraternal Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers please make your donations to the American Lung Association, 1301 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20004 or on line at www.lung.org, in Karon's memory. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.

“ Dear Duane and Family,
Although I didn't know Karon well I sensed a strong and intelligent person when I visited you a couple of years ago. Although It was obvious she was suffering breathing she didn't complain. It was good to have a quality visit.
I still remember the fine business relationship we had with you.

Sincerely,

Earl Tilly
