“ Chris! I am so incredibly sorry for your loss! You and your family have been through so much! I recognized a few of the places in the photos...it made me smile and cry at the same time. How beautiful Katy and Maggie have become. My heart breaks that you had to say good bye to your Katy. You have always been so close to her. If you need anything my friend please know that I am here....thinking of you!

“ We used to scarf turkey hot dogs and watch lightning streak through the sky. Beaches was "our" movie and I thought of you on the Boardwalk. I love you. I'll be seeing you as well. Rest in peace.
