

Kelvin Davis

October 5, 1962 - September 28, 2025

Kelvin Blake Davis, a devoted family man, passionate outdoorsman, and professional Truck Driver of Ardenvoir, Washington, passed away peacefully on September 28, 2025, just shy of his 63rd birthday. He was born on October 5, 1962.

Kelvin dedicated his life to the open road, embracing a career as a professional Truck Driver that perfectly suited his adventurous spirit and profound love of travel. A lifelong learner, Kelvin consistently sought knowledge in his areas of passion, even after achieving his High School Diploma from Entiat, Washington.

A true outdoorsman, Kelvin found his greatest joy and solace in nature. His favorite pastimes included hunting, fishing, and camping. He was also a talented cook who loved nothing more than sharing his delicious meals and his generous spirit with family and friends. When not on the road or in the wilderness, Kelvin enjoyed building and pursuing new projects.

Above all else, Kelvin cherished his family. His memory will be deeply missed by his loving mother, Ann McKinney of Ardenvoir, WA; and his son, Christopher B. Davis. His legacy lives on in his precious granddaughter, Kiley Davis. He also leaves behind his brother, Mitchell Davis, his sister, Rona Davis, and many adoring nieces and nephews who will deeply miss his humor and generosity. Kelvin also leaves behind a close-knit circle of cherished friends, both on the road and in the Entiat Valley community, whose support and laughter enriched his life immensely.

Kelvin was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Davis.

“ Uncle Kelvin, you were such an awesome man, your sense of humor got everyone rolling, your kind heart outshined even the brightest stars. I will always remember your little black car with the enormous CB radio antenna. I swear you had that car the whole time I was growing up.

You are deeply loved and missed. -Haley
