“ Hey Dad,

It's been two years since you died in your working boots while taking the trash out on the farm in Waterville. I miss you lots and have been thinking about you lately. I just finished one of your favorite TV series: Longmire. It was pretty good. We have a new dog, Huru. I think you would love him; he is a super happy buddy and really smart.

But the past two years have been crazy! You've missed a lot. Alicia and I got married in the fall of 2019 at our home in Spokane; it was a great party and I think you would have loved the food. We are thinking we may try for a baby later this year. A global pandemic hit in the March of 2020 and we are still in a partial lock down today. Weird, huh!?! Mom finally moved off the farm in Waterville in Spring 2020 and is living by herself in an apartment in Waterville. It has taken some adjustment, but she seems happy. Clearing out the farm was a big project and difficult job. I'm happy it's over. We lost our dog, Wednesday, to cancer in the spring of 2020. She was one of the dogs born on the farm in 2013 (Otto and Lady's pups).

I guess I just wanted to say hi Dad. I'll keep thinking of you and updating you in my heart and mind. I love you. I miss you. You were a great dad. Thanks for all your support and love.

Your Son,

Zane
