

Kim Karl Klose

October 30, 1937 - December 11, 2013

Kim Karl Klose

10/30/1937-12/11/2013

Born in Missoula, MT, Kim lived in Washington since he was five years old. After graduating from Highline High School in 1956, Kim enlisted in the US Army where he served until 1963. After working for Weyerhaeuser for four years, Kim established his own business selling and maintaining bank and financial equipment. As an expert in check fraud he was often consulted for check fraud investigations. Kim later transitioned to a computer consultant and an instructor after he, as he put it, "flunked" retirement. It was his work travels that introduced him to Wenatchee, where he longed to live for many years until he finally moved here in 2012. Kim was an avid mountaineer, where he met his wife, Elaine in 1968. Together they enjoyed great adventures and travel.

Kim was preceded in death by his wife, Elaine of 42 years. Survivors include his daughters, Vera and her husband, G of Omaha, Nevada, and Britta (Jacques) Klotz of Phoenix, Arizona; his grandchildren, Luke and Heidi of Anchorage, Alaska and his close friend, Phyllis Russell.

Memorial Service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, December 16, 2013 at Columbia Heights Retirement & Assisted Living Community Inurnment at Tahoma . Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ I took care of Kim, He was a very caring and sweet man. He fought really hard and showed his love for his daughters and his grandkids. He could always bring out the smile in anyone who was around him. will miss you Kim and my prayers are with the family.

chariti - December 14, 2013 at 12:23 AM