“ As a fellow classmate I will always remember that as the oldest of his siblings, Larry took care of his brothers and sister, almost like a parent instead of a brother - he was very caring. I remember that Larry had a passion for track and throwing the javelin in high school and even went on to compete while attending Wenatchee Valley College.

*It saddens me to think that Larry suffered so much in his last years.
Rest in peace my friend. Larry Kesterson - LHS Class of 65*
