“ I'll never forget this woman and orthodontist husband. I was a patient of her husband's and had trouble getting to appointments because of my parents work schedule. This gracious woman used to pick me up at school take me to my orthodontist appointment. She was the acting receptionist bookkeeper at this practice but she became the taxi for John Pickens my dad busy. I've reminded her son about this it made an impression on me living in Wenatchee only here would someone ever do that
