“ Lars i will forever smile anytime i hear Jethro Tull Aqualung remembering Saturday mornings with you trying to play it on your bag pipes. Your love of life, family, friends, people, & pets made me proud to be your sister. You were one of a kind with a fearless spirit that marched to its own drum. You can now have a cheeseburger in paradise. Rest easy

“ I met Larry in 6th grade due to an odd set of coincidences and we found ourselves friends from there on out. He was always full of life and full of great plans. His quick wit, love of quirky movies, and music bring back fond memories of road trips and movie marathons. He was determined to instill in me a love of Jimmy Buffet, which he did that sticks to this day. In a lot of ways, he was full of paradoxes that belied deceptive appearance. I have many memories with him that I will cherish. Happy trails my friend and I hope you find peace.

“ Larry brought much laughter to the hearts of all the Patrick Ryan clan. While you went to school with our daughter you also became a part of the lives of our entire family. You often stopped to visit with us at our optical office and never left with sharing a funny story. I remember when Pat finally got a really big belly laugh from Larry when Pat wore his "Custer died in an Arrow shirt" tee shirt to work the day Larry was coming into the office. Larry, was a one of a kind friend. Thanks for sharing your life with us, Larry. The Pat Ryan family
