“ Loni was my mom’s first cousin. My mom was Connie Schroeder Robertson. Loni’s father Henry (Hank) and my mother’s dad Warren were brothers. I saw Loni last on Dec 1. She gave me a notebook to share with family of all sorts of family stories and pictures.

Leilani and my Father, Fred Pflugrath, were BFF’s and shared many meals and good times together as good friends often do. I miss them both very much as Leilani chose her spot in Heaven exactly a year after losing her BFF. I love and miss you both very much bad.... 🙏🏻✌️

“ Dearest Leilani, you have now been reunited with your loved ones as well as my husband (and your dear friend), and now every Christmas I will keep you both close in my heart and thoughts. This holiday will be hard to take but i am sending you my love and thanking you for your friendship. You were one of the few people i really connected with after moving out here from the East Coast. I'll miss you very much and look forward to the day when i will once again be reunited with you and my husband Chris. I know Marmalade was waiting for you when you crossed over. Thank you for letting me visit with you this past year. Merry Christmas Sweet Leilani and thank you for all of the treasured memories of the three of us and our friendship and love. Francesca
