“ Dear Martha and families

Lenore loved her Lord as her Savior. She was so faithful at First Baptist Church especially in the choir and singing solos = a beautiful enjoyable voice to listen to.

I loved her accent too. Every time we would see her at HightGate she would share how much First Baptist meant to her. For a long time she and Tom came when they could.

I first met Lenore back in the '50s at First Baptist. My girl friend (wife now) Betty Lee Allen and I would come to your house down on Pennsylvania and stay with you Martha and Billie for an evening. Hate to say baby sitting at this point!

While in Washington DC some years ago, I stopped at the memorial and found Bill's name and scratched it on a piece of paper as so many people were doing. Not sure if I gave it to Lenore but I told her.

We pray the God of Peace will grant you comfort and peace as you celebrate the life of your mom.

A beautiful lady, a sweet sparkling smile - and she told me she loved me. I called on her as one of our shut-ins as a Deacon at First Baptist Church - now Calvary Crossroads Church. In the later years Lenore knew us but was unable to make the conversation work. Her ever sparkling eyes made the conversation "real."

I pray that Psalm 34 will encourage you at this time too.

In Christian love
