

Leonard L. Cook

May 23, 1927 - February 1, 2022

Leonard L. Cook, 94, passed away peacefully and went to be with his Lord and Savior, on Tuesday, February 1, 2022. He was born in Washington State to Grover C. and Hazel E. Cook, the oldest of three children. His family eventually settled in Monse.

Leonard had a strong work ethic. He held a variety of jobs, including farming, construction, and sales/delivery driver, before transferring to Everett. Leonard was president of a Toastmasters International chapter, vice president of Ambassadors, and deacon of his church board.

Leonard married Maxine Stroud in Seattle in 1957. They were married 63 years and had two children, Kevin and Kathy. Leonard worked several years in the grocery industry before owning a grocery store/ice cream parlor and deli in the Seattle area. Leonard enjoyed Master Gardeners, travelling around the country, and telling stories.

Leonard is survived by his children and their spouses and grandchildren; his brother Elmo and his sister Millie (Bob). He is preceded in death by his parents and Maxine.

Services will be held at a later date in the Spring/Summer.
