“ I know I'll always think of Leonard at 8:30 every Wed. morning. That was our breakfast day and hour. We never missed a Wed. unless one of us were away, had an app't. or ill. This went on for the last six years. Our discussions were varied, but always included, politics, sports, (particularly basketball) and family. We never had to plan it was taken for granted that we met at exactly 8:30 and then decided where we would have breakfast. Though I had known him for many years it was the last six that I got to know the real Leonard and always looked forward to our WEDNESDAY. Thanks Marie for sharing him on those days. Jerry Jones
