

LeRoy H. Fanning

March 31, 1927 - March 25, 2011

LeRoy Fanning

Born March 31, 1927 in Great Falls, MT. At an early age, the family came to Washington and he was raised and attended school in Vancouver, WA.

He joined the Merchant Marines to “See the World” and married his wife of 60 years, Charmaine Reymond, in 1950. He worked for Alcoa Vancouver works until entering the U.S. Army in 1950 and serving 2 years in Korea during the Korean conflict. He returned and transferred to Alcoa’s Wenatchee Works in January of 1953, retiring in 1993.

They have resided in E. Wenatchee and raised their family of one son and two daughters. The family enjoyed horses and was very active in Appleatchee Riders and 4-H Clubs.

In retirement, he worked for Dovex Fruit Co., which he enjoyed. He also enjoyed fishing with his daughter and grandsons and would go as often as he could.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Charleen Fulbright, son Dana, infant grandson, Christopher and six brothers.

Surviving are his wife, Charmaine, daughter, Cindy Sandhop (Carl); son-in-law, Jay Fulbright (Laura); one brother Ronald, Lynwood and sister, Evelyn Buddle, New Jersey. He's also survived by his grandsons, Zachary Troxler, U.S. Navy, Everett, Chad Fanning Bremerton, Cameron Fulbright, Wenatchee, Geoff Bailey and one granddaughter, Jordyn Bailey.

We would like to extend our deepest thanks to all who had a part in his care and their compassion, especially, Drs Julie Smith and Jay Gorham, their nurses and hospice volunteers, Mark and Claudia
