

Lewis Trond

September 14, 1948 - February 3, 2015

Lewis Alton Trond, a resident of RiverWest Senior Living in Wenatchee, WA lost his courageous battle with cancer on Tuesday February 3, 2015. Lewis was formerly of Omak, WA since 1979. He was born in Taunton, MA on September 14, 1948 and raised in Berkley, MA. A graduate of Dighton-Rehoboth High School, he attended Bridgewater State College before entering the Army in 1968. He served his country in the Vietnam War.

His love for the outdoors is what brought him to Okanogan County to work in the apple orchards.

Lewis loved to read, especially about World War II. He was an avid sports fan, who followed his favorite teams, the Seahawks, Red Sox and Celtics.

He was the son of the late Stanley and Doris (May) Trond. He leaves a sister, Dorothy and her husband Fredrick Menard of Berkley, MA and a brother Richard and his wife Andrea Trond of Rehoboth, MA.
