“ When we moved to Wenatchee, WA and joined the River City Sam's Lola was one of the ladies that took me under her wing and showed me the city and the fun times a Good Sam club could have. These photo's bring back special moments!

“ To Everett and the family -

I have fond memories of Lola and your family. When I was in early elementary school, Rodney and I would play together. I remember being about 3rd grade (about 1963) and Rodney and I were playing around the Gill house and in the orchard. That was a great adventure land for little boys!

Anyhow, there was a local “bully” that I had encountered at school, in self defense, and this bully was stalking me. While with Rodney, this bully somehow found us near the Gill house, and attacked me. I wrapped him up in a head lock, and asked Rodney to get his mom, because if I let the bully go, he would try to hit me. Lola came running out of the house swinging a broom and ran off the bully. No one was going to mess with Lola, her kids, or their friends!

Later, Rodney and I developed different interests, but we were always friends. I will always smile while remembering Lola’s running with the broom!

You have a wonderful family! I will pray for God’s comfort as you grieve the loss of Lola.

Sincerely,

Ron Skagen
