“ I knew and loved Lorna since the mid 1970's. She was a customer of mine, when I was a hairdresser, and I met her three girls during that time. She was one who's home I was invited to on several occasions when her children were still at home and again after she was married to her latest husband. She introduced me to Mary Kay, which I still use and give as gifts to this very day! I cannot say enough about this awesome lady. She was real and genuine and we had wonderful fellowship in the Lord through the years. Godspeed, Lorna, and may He comfort and bless your children!
