

Lucile Dissmore

June 26, 1923 - February 14, 2023

Lucile M. (Culver) Dissmore, 99, passed away peacefully on February 14, 2023 at the Joseph C Thomas Center in Salem, Virginia.

Lucile was born June 26, 1923 in Chelan, WA, the daughter of Ray and Flo (Cavanaugh) Culver. She was raised by her parents on an orchard on the south shore of Lake Chelan until her early teens. She loved living on the lake and would recount stories of growing up there with her sisters. She also enjoyed spending time at a special, family-owned property up Lake Chelan known as Rex Creek. A portion of that property is still held by the family and is used often by descendants.

Lucile graduated from Chelan High School in 1941 and attended Kelsey - Baird Secretarial School in Spokane, WA. On February 24, 1942, she married John Dissmore just before he left for service in WWII. They were married nearly 71 years until his death in 2013.

Lucile spent over 20 years working in the secretarial field while raising her family in the Wenatchee, Spokane, and Okanogan valleys. In Okanogan she was secretary to the high school principal, and students she helped tutor often stayed in touch with her for many years thereafter. Homemaking was her career of choice, and their home was always open and a haven to many. As a young girl, Lucile professed to serve God and stayed true to her commitment throughout her life. Her faith in God was unwavering, and her family and friends benefited from the great love she had in her heart. In her last years, when she wasn't able to do much, love was what she gave without measure.

In 1973, John, Lucile and daughter, Carol, left Okanogan for Washington DC. A year later, they moved to East Wenatchee, WA. There they opened their home for regular fellowship meetings with their church members. In August 2005, they moved to Roanoke, VA to be near their daughter.

Lucile was preceded in death by her parents and husband, brother, Richard Culver and sisters, Geraldine Wieweck and Patricia Polley. She is survived by two sons, Ray (Linda) Dissmore of Everett, WA; Tim (Susan) Dissmore of Federal Way, WA; one daughter, Carol (Wayne) Snyder of Daleville, VA; five grandchildren, Jared Snyder, Cindy (Stewart) Davis, Blake Matthews, Justin Dissmore, Charlotte Dissmore; and two great grandsons, Carson and Kellen Davis.

Friends and family may visit Jones & Jones Funeral Home on Friday, February 24 from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. A funeral service will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, February 25, 2023 at the Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home, 302 9th St., Wenatchee, WA. Interment will follow in the spring at Entiat Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Joseph C Thomas Center Legacy Fund, 3939 Daugherty Rd., Salem, VA 24153.

“ I have been thinking of all of you in the family since hearing of Lucile death., It was well over 55 years ago I was in she and John's home the first time. My first year in the work. Then many times after. She always treated me like one of her son's since we fell into the same age group. Her kindness to my parents when they were in Wenatchee hasn't been unforgotten either. Both John and Lucile have been very special to me through the years. Now she has gone on to her reward and we rejoice with her. So thankful for her steady, solid influence on my life. May you as a family be comforted and encouraged in the Lord of whom she had her great trust in through her life. Bob Anderson

“ We're so thankful to have met John and Lucile. They have been a wonderful inspiration to us. We love the memories of visiting them in Wenatchee years ago. They showed us how to make the most of having a daughter on the opposite coast of the USA! Just trying to decide what to say here has brought many wonderful memories. Thank you for the smiles, Lucile. Condolences to Tim, Ray, Carol and families. Love From Larry and Glenda Lawrence, Christiansburg, Virginia “ Sending my sincere condolences to Ray, Tim, and Carol and families. I have special memories of John and Lucille at conventions, and also had the privilege of being in their home for Sunday morning mtg. in Wenatchee. Always valued a visit with them. Always a smile, and such a care for the Kingdom. They were special friends of my aunt and uncle, Paul and Linda Trevithick. They will both be missed.

“ I used to attend Sunday morning church in John & Lucille's home in East Wenatchee in 1979. I have fond memories of them. They were an inspiration. She had a good spirit and countenance. She lived a good long life. Thinking of Ray and rest of the family. Rest in Peace. From Jeff Read based in S. California.
