“ Lucille was one of the sweetest ladies I knew. My father, Lamar Homberg, was a cousin of hers. Their mothers, Lydia and Anna were sisters. I'm sitting here now on Thanksgiving day with my mom, Marlene and we've been talking about her and the many memories we have from going to Waterville so many years ago. She remembers the Memorial Day Picnics at the Park. I, myself, remember going to the museum with my brothers and sister. I loved that place!
Our condolences to you all and may you hold memories in your hearts forever.
Sincerely,
Ellen Holman and Marlene Homberg
