“ I worked with Lynda at the health district and remember her well. She helped to train me when I started work in 2000. I met Charles several times as well when he visited the office. Lynda was a strong minded woman who took her job seriously. We got along well and I was sorry to read that she passed away. My condolences to the family.

“ Our hearts are full of warm memories and wonderful visits. Lynda's strength of character, her stories of life, her devotion to her family and of course, her creative abilities touched all who knew her. While we are sad to lose our sister, we want to celebrate her life and send our love with her.

“ Lynda, my sister, such a strong woman, always caring, sometimes fierce. So many memories, today's are filled with childhood times, trying to ease the pain of her recent struggles.
