

Mack Pitts

June 19, 1961 - December 16, 2024

Myron Wayne (Mack) Pitts was born June 15, 1961 in Coos County Oregon to William (Bud) and Lois Pitts. Mack passed away on December 16, 2024 in Wenatchee, WA. He lived in Powers, Oregon until the age of six when the family moved to Long Beach, WA, then the family home was purchased in Morton, WA where Mack attended school and made many lifelong friendships. He later worked as a timber faller - a job he loved - in Washington and Alaska. Many stories were shared about his adventures on Afognak Island and the surrounding areas. Mack returned to Washington where he lived in Forks before moving to Wenatchee, WA where he reconnected with a longtime friend Kathleen Brooks. They spent many hours hiking and exploring the Wenatchee foothills and the high country of the North Central Cascades. Mack had a generous heart, helping many strangers who were in need. His favorite things were fishing and his "Lovable Lexi Lou girl dog", a Red Heeler / Jack Russell mix. She was his constant companion and love of his life. In 2016 Mack joined the Saint Joseph Catholic Church in Wenatchee where he made many friends and became a member of the choir.

Mack was preceded in death by his beloved mother. He is survived by his father, sister Joni Pitts, brother Jeff Pitts (Jodi), dear friend Kathleen Brooks, nephews Scott Gall, Nick Gall, Tye Pitts, niece Terin Heye, numerous great-nieces and nephews, and dog Lexi.

A funeral service will be held at Saint Joseph Catholic Church February 5 at 11 am. Donations in Mack's memory can be made to the Wenatchee Valley
