“ I loved Margaret....I knew her from when my Dad worked with her for years at Gwin White and Prince, however, I got to know her better cause she was great pals with my great pal, Gretchen Minard. Gretchen lived to be 108! One time I picked Margaret and Gretchen up and we took off to Lake Wenatchee for the weekend...Gretchen's cabin is next door to mine...We went out to dinner (and a couple drinks!!) at Kahler Glen and had a blast! Margaret always had some fun stories to tell...what an interesting life she had!! Her Dad I guess, was Maitre d at the WAC in Seattle and she always had great stories of him and her mom...and life in the twenties!!! I miss her!!!
