“ Years later this man is still missed by his family and the rest of us who loved him, not always a shining example of what to do but was always a lesson on how to live weather it was to follow him or know that was not the right decision so i dont make it for myself and im forever grateful for the years i got to call him my dad i love and miss you❤️

“ Mark was my best friend. He is a part of every day in our home. We have two children who are daily reminders of who he was. We will forever miss him. The world will never be the same here for us without him.
