“Mary Palmer, sounds so weird to say since my whole life I knew her as Nini, a nickname my eldest cousin gave her. I loved going to see her and my granddaddy in Palo Alto, CA greeted at the door with loving arms. You see, Nini's house was a place that my siblings and I felt safe, felt loved, felt special. She made us feel important and she always asked us questions about our lives.

We spent many memorable holidays over at my Nini's house. Over the years and as her grandchildren grew, made mistakes, and tried to find their own way, she was never judgmental. She was always encouraging and loving every time I spoke to her. My Nini is responsible for helping shape me into the man I am today.

I will forever miss Nini and continue to think of her daily. I will cherish the three wonderful handmade quilts she made me over the years and the letters we wrote to each other while I was in college. I will miss her smile, playing dominoes, and the warmth in her heart.

“ To Pat, Donna Gayle and families: We read Mary's obituary in the Foard County News. Thanks so much for having it posted there. Our Dad and his brothers loved all of Charlie's girls and they all had such a great relationship growing up in Thalia. I know that your Mom was a truly special person and will be so missed. Just wanted you to know that we are thinking of you. We are still carrying on the family farming tradition in Thalia and our Mom still lives in Uncle Charlie and Aunt Nora's house. Much love to you all. Mollye Wisdom Hatfield (Jake's daughter) If one of you will send me an email address I would love to maintain a connection with your family: mollyelisa@yahoo.com

“ Mary was my grandmother, friend, confidant, teacher and soul mate. She was the rock I leaned on my whole life and I feel unanchored without her. I have such sadness, but then I am filled with gratitude for the length of time that I got to have her in my life. I am who I am because of her. I always aspired to be like her, never wanting to disappoint her in any way. I will miss her Texan sayings, her kind words, her laugh and most of all her unconditional love.

“ I did not have the privilege of a personal relationship with Mary Palmer, but I know her son, Pat, is a wonderful tribute to his mother. Through the years I have lived in Wenatchee I have experienced both joys and sorrows with Pat and Theresa and know that his strong character qualities are a reflection of her life, her Christian example and her love for family and friends.

I pray God's blessings to cover those who will miss her most.
