“ I remember when i was a baby when she held me. She would always make me laugh. She would always make me happy! Mary was my greatgrandma. I would always call her mama, but I dont know why. It was really fun going with her every year on Black friday togo shopping. I could always tell that she really loved me with all her heart. I remember when I went to church with her. I also remember when swould sing songs to me. It was very fun having her in my life, and no matter what she will still be in my heart and life. Another time when it was fun was when I would always go with her to get her hair cut. I enjoyed having her watching me.I remember everyday after church her friends and me and her would always go to eat at Taco Bell. I will always love her.
