

Maxine Lorraine Etzkorn

February 13, 1926 - July 30, 2010

Maxine L (Halgren) Etzkorn passed away, peacefully, on July 30th at Central Washington Hospital after a brief illness. She was born Maxine L. Halgren on February 13, 1926 at St. Paul, Minnesota, the daughter of Ernest and Hannah Halgren. As an infant she lost her father to a sudden illness. Her mother and she then moved to and resided for a time in Spokane until her mother married Lloyd S. King of Odessa, WA. Maxine attended grammar school and graduated from Odessa High School in 1944. After graduation Maxine moved to Spokane where she was employed by the Spokane and Eastern Bank. She married Howard L Crockett in 1945. They resided in Richmond, California and a daughter, Sharon, was born to them there. Maxine returned to Spokane in 1949 and was employed at Central Pre-Mix Concrete Co. as a bookkeeper for 13 years. In 1962 she met and married long-time Wenatchee resident, Karl R Etzkorn. They resided in Wenatchee until Karl passed away in 1966. Maxine continued to make her home in Wenatchee. She was employed by the National Forest Service in later years.

Maxine is survived by one daughter and son-in-law, Sharon and Roger Jones of Sammamish, WA; one step-son, Kenneth Etzkorn of Seattle; brother, Wayne King; and brother and sister-in-law Virgil and Rosemary King, all of Spokane; grandsons and spouses, Mark and Tram Jones of Sammamish, WA and Scott and Karin Jones of Boise, Idaho; great-granddaughters, Haley and Isabel Jones of Sammamish, WA.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Wenatchee Assisted Living and Central Washington Hospital for their excellent care during this time.

A private, family celebration of Maxine's life will be held in Spokane. Local arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.

“ I remember working with Maxine at the Supervisor's Office for the Wenatchee National Forest. She always had a smile and she was always busy. I enjoyed her company many days in the lunchroom. She was a sweet person and will be missed by many.
