

Michael L. "Mike" Hardiman

May 20, 1950 - April 27, 2022

Mike was born on May 20th, 1950 to Irvin and Edna Hardiman in Nampa, Idaho. He was the second of six children. The Hardiman family moved to Royal City, Washington in 1954. This is where Mike grew up and he graduated from Royal City High School in 1968. After high school Mike went to Big Bend Community College in Moses Lake for two years. After college he joined the Marine Corp in 1969, which took him to Viet Nam. He was honorably discharged in 1971. Following his discharge from the military, he started his own business in the agricultural hay industry. During this time he attended gospel meetings offered by two ministers, Marian Thorburn and Joyce Long, who taught according to the New Testament. He made his profession to serve God in those meetings in TriCities in 1971. This gave him fellowship and friendship with a worldwide Christian family. For 10 years, from 1972 to 1982, Mike left his home and belongings behind to serve in the ministry, teaching the same gospel message that he had been listening to. In 1983 Mike began a career in the construction industry. In 1986 he married Tammi Newman in Lake Tahoe, California. Mike and Tammi's first home was in Tonasket, where Mike worked for S & J Lumber Company. Their only child, Brett, was born there in 1988. Later that year the Hardiman family moved to Anacortes, Washington. Mike worked in the shipyards from 1988 to 2003 as a welder. In 2004 Mike moved to Wenatchee, where he lived until his passing. Mike passed away just before midnight on Wednesday, April 27th, less than 2 weeks after a major heart surgery at the University of Washington Medical Center in Seattle. His family is satisfied that his medical team did an excellent job with his surgery and care. Most of all, they are very thankful for his unwavering love for the Lord. Mike is survived by his wife, Tammi and son Brett, his older brother Ted and his wife Marilyn of North Carolina, his younger brother Dan of Texas, his sister Patti and her husband Rex Sexton of Vancouver Washington, his mother-in-law Adah and her husband Joe Plews of Portland Oregon, sister-in-law Lori and husband Jim Dawson of Mesa Arizona, and brother-in-law Kelly and his wife Marie Newman of Billings Montana, an aunt, numerous cousins, nieces, nephews and many friends. Mike was preceded in death by his brother Charles Lester, sister Becky Arnold, his parents and his grandparents.

I first met Mike about 1975. I was 15 .It had been arranged for me to go live on the Massey's dairy farm by Moses lake,to keep me out of trouble .(it worked). I didn't know until the night before that I was going, and Mike picked me up the next day . i always joked with him later , that was the time we went for a ride and I wasn't coming back .. Anyway ,I've always looked up to him as a friend , and a strong older brother in the faith. I'll miss him ..

“ It was wonderful to know Mike. He was a great friend and brother. He understood what workers face as he had been 10 years in the ministry himself. We often met at one of his favorite eateries in East Wenatchee, El Porton, for lunch. He was friends with the staff and knew a lot of the customers who came there. He didn't know strangers. He always had hope that some of his many acquaintances would come to Gospel meetings. He often shared of his time in the ministry. He never complained about the pain he endured. He was a solid elder to his fellowship meetings, and deeply concerned about the spiritual welfare of each of the friends he met with. There was usually never a lull in the conversation when Mike was around! He always had something interesting to share. At a funeral in Wenatchee in 2020, as Mike passed by, he said to me "I hope I'm next", just indicating some of the misery he faced on a daily basis. While Mike didn't have a death wish, he really didn't have a life wish, either. He was ready to go on to what he had lived for all his life. I will miss him greatly. Terry Wells

“ I met Mike at my brothers (his father-in-law) funeral. After the service Mike and I were visiting about a real estate adventure he and my brother were in and he offered to show it to me. We spent an hour or more driving to see that and got a chance to get acquainted away from the busyness of the aftermath of the funeral. I appreciated his thoughtfulness and have thought of that time many times over the years.
