Myrle Harnden

Cashmere, WA

Myrle Harnden, 97, a longtime Cashmere, WA resident, died Thursday, November 24, 2011, at Epledalen, an assisted living home in Cashmere. Myrle was born in Franklinville, IL on April 24, 1914, to Ed and Lois Sheldon. She moved to Cashmere and graduated as Valedictorian from Cashmere High School in 1931. On April 16, 1933, she married Carl Harnden in Cashmere. They had four sons, Dick (Pat) of Lynnwood, Bob (Betty) of Spokane, Ron (Sharon) of Bothell and Daryl (Lorna) of Cashmere. She was blessed to have 15 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren.

Myrle was devoted to her family and her church. Even while working seasonally outside the home, she still found time to bake bread and cinnamon rolls, tend her garden and teach Sunday school. Because she could see the good in everyone, she made friends of all ages throughout her life. She will be remembered for her constant smile and always positive words for everyone.

Myrle is survived by one brother, Logan (sister-in-law, Dorothy) Sheldon of Cashmere; and one sister, Eleanor LaMontagne of Anacortes, WA. Many neighbors and friends also considered her to be family. A Memorial Service will be held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, December 3, 2011, at the Cashmere United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the memorial fund at the Cashmere United Methodist Church or to the Cashmere School Foundation scholarship program.
