

Nathon Wolford

December 6, 1980 - October 7, 2020

Nathon Gilbert Wolford of Wenatchee, WA died unexpectedly on 10/7/20 at the age of 39.

He is survived by his wife of ten years Melissa Wolford, his son Riley Wolford, his mom Lourdes

Wolford, his mother and father in law Ron and Janice Putman, and six siblings, Louaine

Whaley, Michael Taylor, Leah Taylor, Leeland Taylor, sister-in-law Angie Miner, brother-in-law

Jeff Putman and their spouses, aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews, and numerous friends that loved him like family. He is preceded in death by his father Arthur Wolford Jr. and his mother-in-law Susan Robinson.

Nathon was born in Vancouver, WA on December 6th, 1980. For the last two and a half years he worked for Marson and Marson Lumber, and previously worked at Home Depot for thirteen years. Nate loved the outdoors and spent many weekends camping, fishing and playing host to many friend and family functions. Throughout his short life he lived every single day to the fullest. He had a magnetic personality that people loved to be around. Nate loved playing guitar and taking requests from people in the group, always wanting to make those around him laugh and smile. Not a day will go by that he isn't loved and missed dearly.

A viewing and visitation is scheduled for Friday, October 16th, from 3PM-7PM at Jones and Jones Betts Funeral Home. A celebration of life party will be held at a later date.

“ I still have the goofy pics he took of me when we worked at the depot together. His nephew and I used to be friends, he was such an amazing guy. Nate the great as I would always call him. Very tragic my heart breaks for his family.
