“ Dear Rod and Russ, Heartfelt condolences to you and the vast "Big No" family far and wide in the loss of your dear mother and our Most Special Friend. I spoke with her by phone just days before her passing and she was as jovial as ever asking about the wellbeing of others, just like the selfless person she always was. Lois and I are just two among many whom Nola--and her longtime friend Betty--took under their wing as young members of the Cashmere Middle School faculty and made for years of wonderful memories. She was a model of devotion to students who came back year after year for the spiritual lift she would always bring into their lives, not to mention the new worlds of children's literature she shared with generations of young people. Were there any office windows anywhere in America that had more student pictures plastered up and down and all around? I don't think so. We will never forget her.

“ My Aunt Nola was truly a breathe of fresh air. Her laugh was absolutely contagious and she had a heart of gold. I'm so happy that she is finally with my Uncle Harold. I'm sure they are living it up in heaven with my Dad and Grandparents. She will always carry a special place in my heart.

“ My heart is breaking!! Nola was such an amazing person!! Always positive, always happy and always had a story to tell. Her heart was so full of love! We would go out for Friday night dinner and by the end of the Evening everyone in the restaurant was her friend!! I will miss you my friend. You are irreplaceable!

“ Always enjoyed my time with Mrs. Hensley, she was so much fun, so caring. I loved my time with her assisting in the library when I was young. I'm sure all of Heaven is enjoying her company and her wit. Sincerely, Darlene Mary Inabnit Goins

“ Shared laughter is love. Nola shared her laughter with everyone....she loved us all! I have never met anyone who was so genuine with love, laughter, kindness, generosity and humility. If I can be half the person Nola was I will be happy. So many memories, so many heartfelt conversations, so much love all rolled into one person! YOUR legacy, Nola, is your abundant laughter and endless love. Always in our hearts, dearest friend!

“ Ahhh fun loving Nola ❤️💜 About 2 years ago she came to Martins Market and told them to call me down and tell them it was an upset customer that wanted to talk to me as I got up front she laughed and said ahhh Krissy I got you 😂. Always loved seeing her - she would light up a room!! Godspeed my friend 💜

“ I have so many memories, first met the Hensley's when I travelled with the Salley's to their Lake Wenatchee cabin. Nola was right next door. I also was her TA for many years when I was in High School. Nola had such a huge heart and gentle soul. Always remember the smile she could bring and her laughter she had. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.
