“ Remembering Nona--

All who knew Nona knew she loved to hunt and fish. Years ago when someone asked Nona how she could possibly shoot deer and elk--"they're so cute and they have big brown eyes." Nona replied that when she looked through the scope she just saw 'steaks and chops', not their eyes!

Many times when Neil went to the coast salmon fishing, Nona delighted in staying home and fishing the river, trying and many times succeeding in catching a bigger fish than Neil did.

One year I recall, Nona and Connie each got their elk and returned to the ranch for help. Nona told Norm where they shot the elk and Norm was able to find one of them, even though it was dark and the elk was covered with snow. Nona's directions--"Well Norm, I was standing by that rock where you got that big 4 point in 1948 . . ."
Nona loved to hunt and she knew the country around the Colockum as well as anyone.
