

Olive J. (Packwood) Brett

April 22, 1924 - January 24, 2012

Olive (Packwood) Brett was born on April 22, 1924; in Snohomish WA. She was raised in the Entiat Valley and graduated from Entiat High School in 1943. In 1945, while she was baking cookies with her grandmother, she was sent next door to borrow a cup of sugar from the neighbors. There she met Ralph Brett, They dated for four months and were married in June. They moved into the "Honeymoon House" on Badger Mountain, with no running water and no indoor plumbing. Within 7 years they had 4 children. Olive was an active member of the Badger Mountain Ladies Club, and enjoyed dances at the Badger Mountain Grange Hall. Ralph died in 1966. Olive moved to East Wenatchee and married Robert Pilcher in 1975. Following her divorce from Robert, she provided in home day care for several families. Some of these children, now with families of their own, had kept in contact with Olive. In the 1960's she joined the Kiwanis Club and the Heritage Club, where she kept up with many old friends from the Entiat Valley.

She is Survived by her four Brett Children, eight grandchildren, and a growing number of great grandchildren, including: Dean and Mary Brett (Heather Brett, Shannon Morrison, and Keving Brett), Colleen Ernst (Clinton Keeney and Ralph Keeney), Gordon and Challis Brett (John Brett), and Neal and Janice Brett (Jennifer Brett and Lisa Lange). She is also survived by her step children from Bob Pilcher: Theresa Pilcher Weeks and Robert Pilcher Jr.

The family is planning a Memorial Service in late May or early June.
