I'll never forget the times at tech center we had. Just messing around and throwing snowballs. He always was running around with a smile on his face . He touched everyone's heart who knew him. He sure touched mine and Class just won't be the same without him. I loved that little guy. I say little even though he was always stronger than me . I'll never forget the laughs and memories we had. I always asked my mom why God takes away some people so young . She would always say "when you pick flowers which do you pick " ..the most beautiful ones. May he forever rest in peace . He's sleeping with the Angels .

“honestly its been such a long time since he passed away and to this day he is still in my thoughts. i remember speaking to him from time to time and he always had something funny or some story to tell me , he was such a nice guy and just generally wanted what everyone at the time wanted , just to fit in and be popular and good in sports ect highschool can be very tough on alot of people and i could relate to him alot. theres not a month that goes by where i dont have him go though my everyday thoughts and remind me that such a nice and brave young man is not here with me anymore. ill never forget him and he honestly gives me strength and makes me remeber that we are here to laugh and love. Rest in peace my good friend

“Palladin was a student in my 3rd grade class in Cashmere. I always told Palladin he was a knight in shining armor. He was a quiet boy with a tender heart. His sweet disposition made him stand out among others. I am sure his absence will be felt by all who knew him. I will never forget this precious soul. I am heartbroken. Rest in peace Palladin.

“ I got to know Palladin through the high school, he was a great kid. Didn't have a mean bone in his body, and always wanted to be a friend. It was always fun seeing him after school or in the hallways and joking around with him. Rest in peace Palladin.

“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Palladin through all of the hard work spent playing football and wrestling and it really pained me to hear what had happened. Palladin was a kind, hard working individual. This world will not be the same without him. Rest in peace, buddy.

“ I did not know Palladin, but he sounded like a wonderful young man. Though I don't know you, my heart is broken for your family. I cannot imagine your pain and grief. May the peace of Christ which surpasses all understanding be with you as you grieve.

“ I often subbed in Palladin's classes at Foothills Middle School. I enjoyed teaching him. He was a great leader. Palladin had a great smile. He was a joy to teach. I always knew I could rely on him if I had questions about classroom procedures and routines. Please accept my deepest condolences. I am so sorry for your loss. Know that your family is in my prayers. May God bless you and carry you through this most difficult time.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lizabeth Fowler

“ In loving memory of a very beautiful Spirit who left us way to soon. I know brother Hunter greeted you with open arms and embraced you so you are never alone, and you are reunited in Paradise together. I know when we make our journey all of our relations will be there to greet us also., and we will rejoice in our coming together. RIP Palladin and know that you will be missed by so many and our hearts will never heal from these tragedies that we have experienced....love to you always..

“ My name's Grayson Hagopian and I'm a senior at WHS. I know there isn't much I can say to remedy this sadness, but what I can say is: though I didn't know Palladin all too well, whenever I did see him he would say hello and crack a smile. He was kind. I'm so very sorry for your loss, I can't imagine the pain. I can only hope for the continuing healing of your family and that you know that with very little interaction, Palladin made a difference to me.

*My sincere condolences,
Grayson Hagopian*
